WASHINGTON CRITIC WASHINGTON, APRIL 9, 1887.

AN ERUDITE MAID. Helen Halstead Herrich was an erudtle young maiden
Who lived in Boston, where, 'tis said, much erudition grows,'
With a weight of woodrous learning was her youthful mind o'erladen,'
And, to her, a bloom meant Botany, and not a simple rose.

She translated Greek and Sanscrit, and she "did undo the Persian;" Carlyle and Herbert Spener helped to feed her hungry brain;
While for trashy flight, writers she professed a great aversion,
And turned her Greetan none aloft with infinite distain.

She explained with perfect clearness all her views on evolution.

And told with modest pride about her first ancestor's birth.

Hispre-Adamite and globulite and airy con-

When first he formed himself to live upor this sordid earth.

She entered a Chautauqua class to stuff herself with knowledge.

And studed many mouldy books she could not understand;
And all the brilliant graduates from Yale and Havard College
Declared she was the brightest girl throughout their Yankee land.

Indeed, when all the world was dark her beacon burned most brightly;
What think you she was coming through the secret midnight hours?
Why, the novels by The Duchess, most frivolous and sprightly,
Where the love talk and the noncense and the klesse came in shower.

ASLANTIC CITY'S ATTRACTIONS its Conveniences as a Summer Resor

For Washingtonians.
Special Correspondence of The Carres.
Atlantic City, N. J., April 8.—I presume the question of selecting a place where the summer may be pleasantly passed is being discussed very freely just now in Vashington circles, as it is everywhere else especially since the advent of spring weather has reminded everybody that the heatel has reminded everybody that the heatel term will soon be upon us. From what I can learn we are to be honored this year more largely than ever before by the presence of Washingtonians. In fact, the tide has been setting this way more and more strongly for several years, and the presence here last summer of your crack military organization, the Washington Light Infantry (which corps was in camp for a week on the grounds of the United States Hotel), had the effect to attract very many of your citizens, some of whom, conduct for the first time, received impressions of Atlantic City which were so favorable that we are not surprised to know there is to be a good dead of Washington society here during the coming summer.

annie City which were so ravorable that we are not surprised to is now there is to be a good deal of Washington society here during the coming summer.

And why not? Where is there better or safer suri-balking? Where superior facilities for boating, yachting and fishing? Where a more salubrious climate? Where a locality in which country and seashore are more charmingly combined? And last, but not least, where, under the aun, is there a resort which can boast of better hotels? Then, too, how easy of access Atlantic City is. Reached by means of two well-manged and linely-appointed railroad lines, the heat of your city may, in six hours, be exchanged for the invigorating breezes of the seashore; and, being at a distance of more than fifty miles from the nearest large city, the rougher elements of society, that frequent many watering-places neare: large lowns, are avoided. Here absolute rest and comfort are secured, every reasonable wish may be gratified, overy shade of fancy included, and at prices to suit all tastes; until, at the close of the season, sojourners may return to their homes strengthened an refreshed by the bracing atmosphere, and with the most agreeable recollections of the social life which they have enjoyed in large measure at Atlantic City.

I have alluded to the hotels of Atlantic Lity, but, sa the subject is an important one, I must reserve it for my next letter. The public bookes here are numerous, most of them got the man and the confort and account of the man of the two conforts and care more for substance than show. Mere anon. Nerrune.

Ice and Milk on Sunday.

Entron Chiric: The Rev. Job M. Price, paster of Waugh M. E. Church, in the Jost to-day, says if he had his way he would not allow either ice or milk to be sold on Sinday, because, foreooth, they are luxuries Christians ought to be able to do without one cay in the week. Is lee's luxury to the fever-purched patent, and is not milk a necessity to the dear little babies? Let the reverend geniteman walk to deorgatown next Sunday. It will do him good. Is there no law against longwinded sermon? Washington, April 9.

To Architects, Builders and Others. Your attention is invited to the laying of cement, artificial stone and asphalt, con-crete water-tight cellar and stable floors, crete water-tight cellar and stable floors, sidewalks and all other work executed for which Portland cement, asphalt, concrete and German maetic are suitable. For character of the work of this company we have numerous references at our office. None but skilled workmen are employed, and all work guaranteed. We are also agents for the less English and German brands of imported Portland cements, which we sell in large or small quantities at low figures. Specimens of our work completed can be seen to a good effect at the new Sun Iron building and the Equitable, both on F street.

The lower fit or of the Sun building and that of the Equitable—we can with confidence call the attention of architects, builders and others to our materials; also, the pavements. Many other specimens of our work in private dwellings, which we will not call your attention to. These two promisent edifices are all that is necessary.

will not call your attention to. These two prominent edifices are all that is necessary to satisfy all that our patent is all that we claim for it.

A MEDICINE, NOT A DRINK. High Authority.

Hop Bitters is not, in any sense, an alcoholic beverage or liquor, and could not be sold, for use, except to persons desirous of obtaining medicinal bitters.

U. S. Com'r Internal Rev.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24, 1884,
Dear Sir—Why don't you get a certificate from Colone! W. H. W. of Baltimore, showing how he cured himself of drunkenness by the help of Hop Bitters. His is a wonderful case. He is well known in Rochester, N. Y., by all the drinking people there. He is known in this city, Cincinnati, New Urleans, New Yorks in fact, all over the country, as he has spent thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his card would be worth thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his card would be worth thousands of dollars to you in this city and Baltimore alone, and make thousands of sober men by inducing the use of your bitters.

J. A. W. Washington, D. C., Sept. 31, 1884,

Prejudice Kulls.

"Eleyen years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by Hop litters, that we had pooled at two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."

—The Parents—Good Templurs.

Mitton, Del., Feb. 10, 1895.
Having used Hop Hitters, the noted remedy for debility, hervouseas, indigestion, etc., I have no hesitation in saying that its indeed an excellent medicine, and recommend it to any one as a truly tonic bitters.

Respectfully,

REV. Mas. J. H. Er. 1800p.

Scipio, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1884.

I am the paster of the Bankist church here and an educated physician. I am not in transite, but am my slow family physician, and advise in chronic cases. Over a year ago, I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has been greatly benefited and still uses the medicine. I believe she will become thoroughly cured of her various complicated "diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various aliments by them.

What He Told Miss Ciara.
It is very seldom that one finds a just appreciation of self stated with such simplicity as by a very English 30 ing man, who was giving an account of his travels.

"Yes, indeed, Miss Chara," said he, "I have been in great perils, don't you know! One time on a railroad train out West, don't you know, we were stopped by the train robbaha, don't you know, and one fellow, a terrible brigand he was, you know, he put his pisted to me head, and he said, "Your money or your brains!" and pon me soul, Miss Clara, i had nothing for him!"—[Youth's Companion.
